Overview

This document provides information about the Adolescence and Young Adulthood/Social Studies-History (AYA/Social Studies-History) Component 1 computer-based assessment. It includes sample assessment center selected response items and answer key, constructed response exercises, and the scoring rubric used to assess each constructed response exercise.

Component 1: Content Knowledge

Component 1: Content Knowledge is a computer-based assessment requiring candidates to demonstrate knowledge of and pedagogical practices for their teaching content area. Candidates must demonstrate knowledge of developmentally appropriate content, which is necessary for teaching across the full age range and ability level of the chosen certificate area.

AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1 Computer-Based Assessment

In the AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1 computer-based assessment, content knowledge is assessed through the completion of approximately 45 selected response items and three constructed response exercises.

AYA/Social Studies-History Standards Measured by Selected Response Items

The AYA/Social Studies-History selected response items focus on the following Standards:

AYA/Social Studies-History Constructed Response Exercises

The AYA/Social Studies-History constructed response exercises assess the following:

- Exercise 1: Documents
  In this exercise, you will use your knowledge of U.S. history and political science to analyze an excerpt from a historical document. You will be asked to respond to one prompt.

- Exercise 2: United States Economic Policy
  In this exercise, you will use your knowledge of political science and economics to describe two political or economic factors that would influence the U.S. government's enactment of an identified economic policy and analyze two ways in which the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy. You will be asked to respond to one prompt.

- Exercise 3: Regional Economic and Geographic Trends
  In this exercise, you will use your knowledge of economics and geography to identify an economic or geographic trend in a map or graph and explain two reasons for the trend. You will also analyze one economic and one geographic effect of this trend on the region identified in the map or graph. You will be asked to respond to one prompt.

Each constructed response exercise will be assessed using a scoring rubric. Each AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1 scoring rubric is derived from the AYA/Social Studies-History Standards and defines the levels of accomplished teaching that you must demonstrate.

You should read the rubric while preparing to take Component 1 to understand how the rubric guides assessors in evaluating your responses to the constructed response exercises.
Inside This Document

This document includes the following two sections: “Sample Selected Response Items and Answer Key for AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1” and “Sample Constructed Response Exercises and Scoring Rubrics for AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1.”

Selected Response Section
This section includes the following:

- sample selected response items
- answer key

Constructed Response Section
This section includes the following:

- three sample constructed response exercises
- associated scoring rubric for each exercise

Sample Selected Response Items and Answer Key for AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1

This section includes

- sample selected response items to help you become familiar with the content and format of the items on an actual computer-based assessment.

  Although this section illustrates some of the types of items that appear on the assessment, note that these sample items do not necessarily define the content or difficulty of an entire actual assessment.

  Please note that the selected response items cover the entire age range of the certificate. Be aware that you are expected to demonstrate knowledge of developmentally appropriate content across the full range of your certificate.

- an answer key.

Sample Selected Response Items

Standard IV. Instruction

1. During a unit on the Civil War, a teacher asks students to read personal letters written in the 1860s by average citizens addressing secession. Using the letters is an effective strategy primarily because it allows students to:

   A. view the debate over secession from the different perspectives of the time.
   B. gain an understanding of the legal issues involved in the secession debate.
   C. understand how states settled the debate over secession.
   D. learn specific facts that give context to the secession debate.
Standard IV. Instruction

2. Which of the following assignments for high school students with advanced numeracy skills would most effectively further their ability to interpret data?
   A. researching recent demographic statistics for selected countries and then using that information to predict future population
   B. collecting Electoral College data and then using that information to map the results of presidential elections after the Civil War
   C. researching the decrease of indigenous populations after the arrival of Europeans in the New World and then using that information to create bar graphs that show the decline
   D. collecting pollution data before and after the implementation of auto emissions regulations and then using that information to write a position paper on proposed environmental legislation

Standard III. Content

3. A teacher of advanced world history wants to help students analyze how political and socioeconomic developments relate to changes in religious doctrine and practice. Which of the following examples would form the most effective basis for a lesson on this kind of comparative analysis?
   A. the significance and purpose of human sacrifice among the Maya and among the Aztec
   B. the influence of monotheism in the religious traditions of Sub-Saharan Africa and Egypt
   C. the origins of Zoroastrianism in Persia and the development of apocalyptic Judaism
   D. the rise of Buddhism in India and the Protestant Reformation in Western Europe
Standard III. Content

4. Use the map below to answer the question that follows.

On the basis of the first-century Silk Road trade routes shown on the map, which situation led to a long-term decline in trade along these routes?
A. division of the Roman Empire in the third century
B. formation of the Yuan Dynasty in the thirteenth century
C. Ottoman conquest of Constantinople in the fifteenth century
D. British victory in the Opium Wars during the nineteenth century

Standard III. Content

5. Which statement explains why the Federal Reserve might raise interest rates to fight excessive inflation?
A. People will be more likely to use savings for major purchases if the cost of borrowing increases.
B. Rising wages will keep money flowing in the economy if the amount of available credit to struggling businesses increases.
C. Falling demand for goods and services will keep prices in check if the amount of money in circulation is decreased.
D. Consumers will be more likely to spend money on goods and services if returns on investments decrease.
6. Why did the framers of the U.S. Constitution decide that the power to tax should originate with the House of Representatives?
   A. The power to tax and the power to spend should rest in different political bodies.
   B. Tax policy should emanate from the political body closest to the people.
   C. The larger political body should promote a more robust tax policy debate.
   D. Tax policy should reflect the needs of the various levels of political bodies.

Sample Constructed Response Exercises and Scoring Rubrics for AYA/Social Studies-History Component 1

This section includes

- sample constructed response exercises to help you become familiar with the content and format of the exercises on an actual computer-based assessment. These exercises include instructions for using the computer, stimulus materials (if applicable), and prompts requiring responses.

  Although this section illustrates some of the types of exercises that appear on the assessment, note that these sample exercises do not necessarily define the content or difficulty of the exercises on an actual assessment.

  Please note these constructed response exercises cover the entire age range of the certificate. Be aware that you are expected to demonstrate knowledge of developmentally appropriate content across the full range of your certificate.

- scoring rubrics that are used by assessors in evaluating your responses to help you understand how your responses are assessed.

Exercise 1: Documents - Candidate Name

Documents

Introduction

In this exercise, you will use your knowledge of U.S. history and political science to analyze an excerpt from a historical document. You will be asked to respond to one prompt.

Criteria for Scoring

To satisfy the highest level of the scoring rubric, your response must provide clear, consistent, and convincing evidence of the following:

• an accurate identification of the topic addressed in the excerpt from a historical document, and a detailed explanation of the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document;

• an insightful explanation of the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document; and

• an in-depth explanation of an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in the document.

Directions

You may view the prompt by clicking the Next button. Compose your response in the space provided.
Stimulus

“. . . That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free; and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom. . . .

And I further declare and make known that such persons of suitable condition will be received into the armed service of the United States . . .”

— excerpt from the Emancipation Proclamation

You must address each of the following in your response.

- Identify the topic addressed in this excerpt and explain the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document from which this excerpt was taken.
- Explain the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document.
- Explain an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in this document.
Scoring Rubric for Exercise 1

The LEVEL 4 response provides clear, consistent, and convincing evidence that the candidate is able to accurately analyze a historical document, thoroughly explain the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document, explain the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document, and provide an in-depth explanation of an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in the document.

Characteristics:
- Topic is accurately identified.
- Historical issues are fully explained in detail and are directly relevant to the creation of the document.
- Explanation of the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document is rich and insightful.
- Opposing point of view is from the same time period, directly connected to the topic, and is explained in depth.

The LEVEL 3 response provides clear evidence that the candidate is able to accurately analyze a historical document, thoroughly explain the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document, explain the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document, and provide an in-depth explanation of an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in the document.

Characteristics:
- Topic is accurately identified.
- Historical issues are fully explained and are directly relevant to the creation of the document.
- Explanation of the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document is thorough.
- Opposing point of view is from the same time period and is explained in detail.
The LEVEL 2 response provides limited evidence that the candidate is able to accurately analyze a historical document, thoroughly explain the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document, explain the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document, and provide an in-depth explanation of an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in the document.

Characteristics:

- Topic may not be identified, or may be inaccurately identified.
- Historical issues may be sketchy or incorrect.
- Explanation of the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document is vague.
- Opposing point of view may not be from the same time period or may only tangentially relate to the topic addressed in the document.

The LEVEL 1 response provides little or no evidence that the candidate is able to accurately analyze a historical document, thoroughly explain the historical issues relevant to the creation of the document, explain the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document, and provide an in-depth explanation of an opposing point of view from the same time period about the topic addressed in the document.

Characteristics:

- Topic may not be identified, or may be inaccurately identified.
- Historical issues are incorrect or unrelated to the document.
- Explanation of the motivation of the author(s) for creating this document may be vague or missing.
- Opposing point of view may not be from the same time period or may be missing.
Sample Exercise 2 and Scoring Rubric

Sample Exercise 2

Standard III. Content

United States Economic Policy

Introduction

In this exercise, you will use your knowledge of political science and economics to describe two political or economic factors that would influence the U.S. government's enactment of an identified economic policy and analyze two ways in which the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy. You will be asked to respond to one prompt.

Criteria for Scoring

To satisfy the highest level of the scoring rubric, your response must provide clear, consistent, and convincing evidence of the following:

- a detailed and substantive description of two political or economic factors that would influence the enactment of an economic policy; and
- a rich, in-depth analysis of two ways in which the identified economic policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.

Directions

You may view the prompt by clicking the Next button. Compose your response in the space provided.

You must address each of the following in your response.

- Describe two political or economic factors that would encourage the U.S. government to end a ban on offshore drilling along the Pacific coast.
- Analyze two ways in which the end of a U.S. ban on offshore drilling along the Pacific coast may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.
Scoring Rubric for Exercise 2

The LEVEL 4 response provides clear, consistent, and convincing evidence that the candidate is able to provide a thorough description of two political or economic factors that influence the enactment of the identified economic policy and provide an in-depth analysis of two ways the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.

Characteristics:
- Description of the two political or economic factors is detailed and substantive.
- Analysis of two ways the economic policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy is rich and in-depth.

The LEVEL 3 response provides clear evidence that the candidate is able to provide a thorough description of two political or economic factors that influence the enactment of the identified economic policy and provide an in-depth analysis of two ways the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.

Characteristics:
- Description of the two political or economic factors is detailed and substantive.
- Analysis of two ways the economic policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy is accurate.
The LEVEL 2 response provides limited evidence that the candidate is able to provide a thorough description of two political or economic factors that influence the enactment of the identified economic policy and provide an in-depth analysis of two ways the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.

Characteristics:
- Description of the two political or economic factors may be overly broad, insignificant, or sketchy.
- Analysis of two ways the economic policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy is only loosely related to the policy, or details may only be tangentially related to the policy.

The LEVEL 1 response provides little or no evidence that the candidate is able to provide a thorough description of two political or economic factors that influence the enactment of the identified economic policy and provide an in-depth analysis of two ways the policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy.

Characteristics:
- Description of the two political or economic factors may be incorrect, or may be absent.
- Analysis of two ways the economic policy may affect the U.S. and/or global economy may be vague, incorrect, or missing.
