School cohort materials for professional development sessions

Possible Funding Sources: Title One Funds, Professional Development Funds & PTA/PTO

PENDING: Nevada Department of Education Great Teaching and Learning Grant Scholarship may

- Twelve two-hour professional development sessions
- Trained National Board Facilitator(s)

Participants must hold a valid educator license.

The following table outlines the breakdown of the financial investment made in teaching and learning:

- Participants must have completed three years of teaching/school counseling.

National Board by May 2018 for scoring (the score is the property of the teacher).

All National Board Candidates are expected to complete the 1-year program and submit the National Board component to

Saturday, September 16, 2017 from 8:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M. (Breakfast and lunch will be included.)

- Yearlong support invoice paid by August 31, 2017 (cost: $2500/ cohort of 10 candidates; $250 for each additional

- Designating a teacher with leadership capabilities in the cohort to act as Teacher Liaison between the Administrator Lead,

- Ten teachers and/or counselors will apply to NBPTS www.nbpts.org and pay the $75 application fee (within 30 days of

- Teachers and counselors taking part in the cohort will read and sign the Teacher Agreement (Form #2) provided by CCEA

- The administrator and cohort members will complete the Impact Statement (Form #3) outlining how the cohort will impact

- Creating a team of 10 or more *qualified National Board candidates. (Minimum of ten teachers/counselors)

- Advocating related education reforms to integrate National Board Certification into American education and to capitalize on

- Arranging for an administrator leader to oversee program success

- Schools qualify for this professional development by:

- Providing a national voluntary system certifying teachers who meet these standards; and

- National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (National Board) is a not-for-profit professional organization, created and governed by practicing teachers and their advocates. The founding mission of the National Board is to advance

- What is the National Board?

- How does a school qualify for this professional development opportunity?

- What are the qualifications for beginning the National Board Certification process?

- Financial Investment

- What does the Clark County Education Association National Board Professional Development Program promise to your professional development cohort?

- What is included in this professional development opportunity?