

CERTIFICATE EXPIRATIONS BY NBCT YEAR FOR RENEWAL CANDIDATES

I am an NBCT whose certificate was set to expire in 2020 when I registered for and purchased Renewal in 2019-20, and then I deferred to 2020-21

If I submit Renewal in 2020-21:	If I switch to Maintenance of Certification in 2020-21:	If I defer to 2021-22 and switch to Maintenance of Certification:
I will submit my Profile of Professional Growth by the published deadline in 2021	I will submit Maintenance of Certification , NOT Renewal, by the published deadline in 2021 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I will receive a refund for the price difference between Renewal and MOC</li> <li>MOC extends certification by 5 years</li> </ul>	I will submit Maintenance of Certification , NOT Renewal, by the published deadline in 2022 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I will receive a refund for the price difference between Renewal and MOC</li> <li>MOC extends certification by 5 years</li> </ul>
My certificate will be extended to Dec. 31, 2021, so it will not lapse prior to 2021 Score Release	My certificate will be extended to Dec. 31, 2021, so it will not lapse prior to 2021 Score Release	My certificate will be extended to 2022, so it will not lapse during the 2021-22 year
If I renew successfully, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2031  Note: This is an update to what was announced in 2019-20. Certificates for NBCTs in this group will be extended to 2031, not 2030 as was previously announced	If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2026	If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2027
If I do not renew, my National Board Certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification	If I do not successfully maintain, my National Board Certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification	If I do not successfully maintain, my National Board Certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification

I am an NBCT whose certificate was set to expire in 2021 when I registered for and purchased Renewal in 2019-20, and then I deferred to 2020-21

If I submit Renewal in 2020-21:	If I switch to Maintenance of Certification in 2020-21:	If I defer to 2021-22 and switch to Maintenance of Certification:
I will submit my Profile of Professional Growth by the published deadline in 2021	I will submit Maintenance of Certification , NOT Renewal, by the published deadline in 2021 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I will receive a refund for the price difference between Renewal and MOC</li> <li>MOC extends certification by 5 years</li> </ul>	I will submit Maintenance of Certification , NOT Renewal, by the published deadline in 2022 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I will receive a refund for the price difference between Renewal and MOC</li> <li>MOC extends certification by 5 years</li> </ul>
My certificate will be extended to Dec. 31, 2021, so it will not lapse prior to 2021 Score Release	My certificate will be extended to Dec. 31, 2021, so it will not lapse prior to 2021 Score Release	My certificate will be extended to 2022, so it will not lapse during the 2021-22 year
If I renew successfully, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2031	If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2026	If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2027
If I do not renew in 2020-21, I am eligible for a second attempt through the Maintenance of Certification process in 2021-22.  If I register for MOC in 2021-22: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>My certificate will be extended to 2022, so it will not lapse during the 2021-22 year</li> <li>I will submit Maintenance of Certification, NOT a Renewal Profile of Professional Growth, by the 2022 submission deadline.</li> <li>If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2027</li> <li>If I do not successfully maintain at that time, I will have exhausted my two attempts and my certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification</li> </ul>	If I do not successfully maintain in 2020-21, I am eligible for a second attempt through the Maintenance of Certification process in 2021-22.  If I register for MOC in 2021-22: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>My certificate will be extended to 2022, so it will not lapse during the 2021-22 year</li> <li>I will submit Maintenance of Certification, NOT a Renewal Profile of Professional Growth, by the 2022 submission deadline.</li> <li>If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2027</li> <li>If I do not successfully maintain at that time, I will have exhausted my two attempts and my certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification</li> </ul>	If I do not successfully maintain in 2021-22, I am eligible for a second MOC attempt in 2022-23. If I register for MOC in 2022-23: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>My certificate will be extended to 2023, so it will not lapse during the 2022-23 year</li> <li>I will submit MOC by the 2023 submission deadline</li> <li>If I successfully maintain, I will earn a certificate that expires Dec. 31, 2028</li> <li>If I do not successfully maintain at that time, I will have exhausted my two attempts and my certification will lapse. I would have to begin the certification process anew to earn certification</li> </ul>